An Act to authorize the Secretary of War to place at the disposal of the National Lumber Manufacturers Association, at Springfield, Illinois, damaged and captured ordnance.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place at the disposal of the National Lumber Manufacturers Association, at Springfield, Illinois, such damaged and captured ordnance and brass guns and ordnance as may be required, out of which to cast the principal figures to be incorporated into said structure, and material to be delivered to said association at Springfield, Illinois.
Approved, March 3, 1869.

[Public—No. 47.]
An Act in relation to additional bounties, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That when a soldier's discharge states that he is discharged by reason of expiration of term of service, he shall be held to have completed the full term of his enlistment and entitled to bounty accordingly.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the widow, minor children, or parents, in the order named, of any soldier who shall have died, after being honorably discharged from the military service of the United States, shall be entitled to receive the additional bounty to which such soldier would be entitled if living, under the provisions of the twelfth and thirteenth sections of an act entitled "An act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the government for the year ending June thirty, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and for other purposes, approved July twenty eight, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and the said provisions of said act shall be construed.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That all claims for the additional bounties granted in sections twelve and thirteen of the act of July twenty eight, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, shall, after the first of May next, be adjusted and settled by the accounting officers of the treasury under the provisions of said act, and all such claims as may on the said first of May be remaining in the office of the comptroller general shall be transferred to the Special Auditor of the Treasury for settlement.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all claims for bounty under the provisions of the act cited in the foregoing section shall be paid, unless presented in due time prior to the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine.
Approved, March 3, 1869.

[Public—No. 48.]
[Public—No. 49.]
An Act in relation to certifying checks by national banks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be unlawful for any officer, clerk, or agent of any national bank to certify any check drawn upon said bank unless the person or persons drawing said check shall have on deposit in said bank at the time such check is certified an amount of money equal to the amount specified in such check; and any check so certified by any authorized officer shall be a good and valid obligation against such bank, and any officer, clerk, or agent of any national bank violating the provisions of this act shall subject such bank to the liabilities and proceedings on the part of the comptroller as provided for in section fifty of the national banking law, approved June third, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.
Approved, March 3, 1869.

[Public—No. 50.]
An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to exempt certain manufacturers from internal tax, and for other purposes," approved March thirty first, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the act to exempt certain manufacturers from internal tax, and for other purposes, approved March thirty first, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, be, and hereby is, amended in the said section thereof so as to read: All taxes upon distilled liquors shall be assessed prior to the first day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight.
Approved, March 3, 1869.

[Public—No. 51.]
An Act relating to captures made by Admiral Farragut's fleet in the Mississippi river in May, 1862.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the vessels attached to or connected with Admiral Farragut's fleet in the river Mississippi which participated in the opening of that river and which resulted in the capture of New Orleans in the month of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and which by law would have been entitled to prize money in the captures made by said vessels, shall be now entitled to the benefits of the prize laws in the same manner as they would have been had the district court for the eastern district of Louisiana been then open and the captures made by said vessels been adjudged and prize money paid by the court of the United States having admiralty jurisdiction may take and have cognizance of all proceedings out of said captures, and the same proceedings shall be had therein as in other cases of prize.
Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the shares in such captures awarded to the officers and men entitled to prize shall be paid out of the treasury of the United States.
Approved, March 3, 1869.

[Public—No. 52.]
An Act explanatory of the act entitled "An act declaring the title to land warrants in certain cases."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the act entitled "An act declaring the title to land warrants in certain cases," approved June third, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, be so construed and applied as to authorize the legal representatives of deceased persons whose claims were filed prior to their death to file the proof necessary to perfect the same.
Approved, March 3, 1869.

SUMMONS.
[Nevada Rev. Stamp, 30 Cents.]

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SECOND Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Ormsby, MARTHA J. CORBETT, plaintiff, vs. JOHN CORBETT, defendant.

The State of Nevada sends greeting to John Corbett, defendant:

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Ormsby, and to answer the complaint filed therein (a copy of which accompanies this Summons) within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service of this Summons, if served within this county; or if served out of this county, but in this District, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days - or judgment by default will be taken against you.

The said action is brought to obtain a judgment and decree of the Court, dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between you, the defendant, and the said plaintiff, on the grounds of desertion, failing to provide for the plaintiff and children, &c. &c., and for costs of suit. All of which more fully appear by complaint of plaintiff herein filed, a certified copy of which is herewith sent you.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court, at the next regular term thereof, for the relief prayed for in her complaint, and costs.

Given under my hand, and the seal of the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Ormsby, this 20th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty nine.

T. J. EDWARDS, Clerk.
